

FSSA News Release

State disability office in Fort Wayne relocating

INDIANAPOLIS (March 20, 2014) – On March 31, 2014, the Ft. Wayne office of the Indiana Division of Disability and Rehabilitative Services' (DDRS) Bureau of Developmental Disabilities (BDDS) and Vocational Rehabilitation Services (VRS), located at 219 W. Wayne St. in Ft. Wayne, will relocate to 201 E. Rudisill Blvd., Suite 300. DDRS is part of the Indiana Family and Social Services Administration (FSSA). This move is intended to make it easier for Hoosiers in Allen and surrounding counties to receive services from FSSA, as the new office will be co-located with FSSA's Division of Family Resources (DFR), along with other state agencies.

The service area for the Vocational Rehabilitation Services office at this location includes Allen, DeKalb, LaGrange, Noble, Steuben and Whitley counties. The Bureau of Developmental Disabilities office service area includes Adams, Allen, DeKalb, Huntington, LaGrange, Noble, Steuben, Wells and Whitley counties.

As of March 31, 2014, the office's address and phone numbers will be:

Address: 201 E. Rudisill Blvd., Suite 300
Fort Wayne, IN 46806

Phone: (BDDS) 260-423-2571 or 877-218-3061
(VRS) 260-424-1595 or 877-715-5292

-30-

Contact

Name: Marni Lemons

Phone: 317.234.5287

Email: Marni.Lemons@fssa.IN.gov

Twitter: @FSSAIndiana